

Regional JAG Program Recognized in Indy

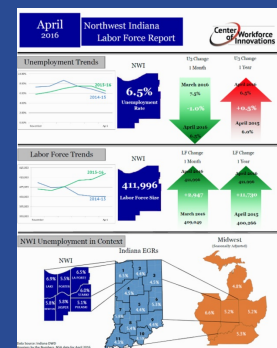

On Tuesday, June 28th, the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (DWD) hosted their annual Jobs for America's Graduates (JAG) awards in Indianapolis. Awards were presented during their 2-day conference where over 150 JAG Specialists learned about new and innovative teaching methods and techniques that are designed to help them successfully continue to help young people graduate.

For full story

Recent LMI Snapshot Now Available

The most recent Regional Labor Market Information Snapshot is available now. Find out where we stand on unemployment trends, labor force trends, and Northwest Indiana unemployment in context to regional, state, and the Midwest.

Full Size Snapshot

The Times Features NWIWB Youth Employment Council's First Jobs Series

Arlene Pearson with Edgewater Behavioral Health Systems gained customer service skills at her first job.

Read more

From stone quarry laborer to Executive Director of the Lakeshore Chamber of Commerce, Dave Ryan shares lessons learned along the way.

Read more

For more First Job Profiles visit <http://gotoworkonenw.com/news-cat/first-job-series/>

CWI Selected to Continue Work Supporting the NWIWB

On Friday, April 1, 2016, the NWIWB posted an official Request for Proposal for Staff to their Board, One Stop Operator, Service Provider, and Fiscal Agent and on May 19th, they voted to secure the Center of Workforce Innovations (CWI) to represent all four areas of service. Their decision was based on a number of facets including the overall proposal, which reflected our collective work, the outcomes, innovations and quality customer service, as well as their collaboration with others, and the dependability they demonstrate with all customers including the workforce board.

Visit our website

NW Indiana Workforce Board | c/o CWI, 2804 Boilermaker Court, Ste. E,
Valparaiso, IN 46383 <http://www.gotoworkonenw.com>

Unsubscribe

Update Profile | About our service provider

Sent by bgrimsgard@innovativeworkforce.com in collaboration with

Constant Contact

Try it free today